

It's CME Season Again. Are You Ready? We Know Exactly How To Help!

December 2016

Are You Prepared or Have You Waited Until The Last Minute? We Can Help!

Some of us put CME requirements off until the last minute and some of us are way ahead but it doesn't matter because, if you order your subscription this month, we extend the expiration date until January 31, 2018!

This is our "Triennial CME Subscription Special"! Don't pass the chance to have all of your CME requirements taken care of for only $275. We have 31 courses and more will be automatically added to your account at no additional charge!

You don't have to pay for CME for up to 3 years if you follow our plan.

You can't beat this deal with a transducer! Order now and no worries for up to 3 years!

As you can see, order now and complete your CME requirements this month, increase your CME hours in 2017, and finish off in January 2018!

We are always creating new courses.

Don't forget about Echo-Web's other benefits:

- Courses available 24/7/365!
- We are approved for ARDMS and CCI Registries!
- All of your certificates are in one place and available on demand - no waiting for a conference - no hassles!
- We have more courses for cardiovascular ultrasound available anywhere!
- You get instant access after purchase! No waiting!

Our Manager's Special is available starting at $595 for 4 staff members. It's CME at a great discount! Perfect for continuing education, registry prep, and accreditation!
